Vintage Tours Launches Exclusive Classic Car Tours in the Alentejo

Kempton, March 28, 2025 – Vintage Tours, the specialist for guided classic car tours in Portugal and Spain, has completed preparations for its tours through the Alentejo, which will take place in September and October this year. Guests of Vintage Tours can look forward to a unique journey through one of Portugal's most fascinating regions – in style, driving an MGA Roadster.

Combining breathtaking landscapes, exquisite gastronomy, and high-quality accommodations, Vintage Tours offers an unparalleled travel experience. The tours through the Alentejo lead through picturesque villages, vast cork oak forests, and olive groves, as well as to cultural highlights such as Évora, known as the “Queen of Alentejo” and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Vintage Tours offers two different roadtrips through the Alentejo:

- The roadtrip through the Northern Alentejo takes travellers from Arraiolos through Crato to the border region with Spain. Along this route, guests will pass through impressive towns such as Marvão and Elvas, whose remarkable fortifications tell stories of their rich history.
- The roadtrip through the Central Alentejo focuses on the heart of the region. It starts in Alcácer do Sal and includes destinations such as Beja, Vila Viçosa, and Monsaraz. Elvas is also an integral part of this travel experience.

"The Alentejo is one of the most authentic and impressive regions of Portugal. Our guests will not only enjoy the breathtaking landscapes but also experience the warm hospitality and outstanding cuisine of the region," says Matthias Haux, founder of Vintage Tours. "All our roadtrips are designed to provide the perfect mix of driving pleasure, culture, and gastronomy. Alongside the unique charm of our classic MGA Roadsters, the historic Pousadas where our guests stay during the tours allow them to immerse themselves in the fascinating history of this region," Haux adds.

Bookings for the Alentejo tours are now open.
