Vintage Tours finalizes its program of exclusive classic car tours for 2026

Kempton, 21 August 2025 – Expectation for the 2026 travel season is rising: Vintage Tours, specialist in exclusive classic car journeys in Portugal and Spain, has finalized the planning for the upcoming season. The unique road trips will begin in mid-February, taking travel enthusiasts on unique discovery journeys through some of the most beautiful regions of the Iberian Peninsula.

Season opening in the Alentejo

The first tours of 2026 will lead to the Alentejo – a region that captivates with its gentle rolling hills, covered in colourful spring blossoms and lush green meadows, and its wealth of history and culture. Along carefully chosen routes, guests will experience authentic villages, impressive fortifications, and culinary highlights. Overnight stays are arranged in historic Pousadas de Portugal, offering guests an exclusive and authentic encounter with the centuries-old heritage of the region.

From April: Through the Douro Valley

From April onwards, tours will take guests through the legendary Douro Valley, one of the world's oldest wine regions and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Driving MGA Roadsters, guests will follow the stunning river valley, passing endless vineyards and picturesque wine villages all the way to the Côa Valley. Nights are spent in exclusive wine hotels, where guests can savor the Alto Douro wine tradition after impressive day stages, always overlooking the majestic Douro River.

Summer and late summer: Discovering Northern Portugal

From late May until September, Vintage Tours explores Portugal's lush north and the Peneda-Gerês National Park. These tours enchant with their diversity: visits to Vila Nova de Gaia with its famous port wine cellars, the medieval splendor of Guimarães, spiritual sites such as Bom Jesus, and the untouched nature of the Peneda-Gerês National Park and the Lima River valley. Here, culture, nature, and the joy of driving on winding roads merge into an unforgettable experience.

Autumn journeys to Andalusia and Extremadura

From October onwards, Vintage Tours continues in southern Spain. Guests discover the fascinating diversity of Andalusia and Extremadura – both in terms of history and landscapes – along carefully curated routes. A highlight of the journey is the visit to Córdoba, famous for its unique Mezquita-Cathedral. Overnight stays take place in the historic Paradores de España, whose architecture reflects the many cultural influences of the Iberian Peninsula.

Season finale in the Alentejo

The travel year concludes once again in the Alentejo, whose autumn landscapes are dominated by warm colors, with golden vineyards glowing in the sunlight.

New in the program: the central region of Portugal

Additionally, Vintage Tours will be offering a carefully curated journey through the central region of Portugal. The tour will start in the Palace of Queluz and will lead the guests northwards along breathtaking coastal roads that reveal the Atlantic's wild and unspoiled beauty. Highlights of the Vintage Tour will be the visit of Tomar, the ancient seat of the Knights Templar, Alcobaça, with its impressive 12th-century monastery and Batalha, a jewel of Portuguese Gothic architecture, inter alia. This classic car tour is not just about driving – it is about experiencing the soul of the Center of Portugal through hand-picked hotels, regional gastronomy, and exclusive cultural encounters.

With the 2026 program, Vintage Tours has succeeded in creating handpicked tours through the most captivating regions of Portugal and Spain, designed with great attention to detail. At the heart of these journeys are the carefully restored MGA Roadsters, which not only guarantee pure driving pleasure but also embody a stylish way of life. The concept is complemented by boutique hotels, fine gastronomy, cultural and culinary highlights, and personal guidance in small, exclusive groups. With this combination, Vintage Tours appeals especially to discerning travelers who wish to combine their passion for classic cars with extraordinary travel experiences.
