Vintage Tours Expands Its Program: New classic car journey to Caramulo, the icon of Portugal's automotive heritage

Kempton, 20 November 2025 – Vintage Tours, the specialist for classic car journeys on the Iberian Peninsula, is expanding its portfolio with a new tour that combines the experience of the Douro Valley and its wine culture with Portugal's rich automotive history in Caramulo. The tours will be available from October 2026 and can already be booked.

The carefully curated journey begins in Porto and leads the participants into the world-famous Douro Valley, where they can enjoy the stunning landscape and the region's centuries-old wine culture. Between terraced vineyards, historic quintas, and breathtaking panoramas, driving a classic MGA Roadster becomes an unforgettable experience. Overnight stays in traditional wine hotels and a visit to the internationally renowned Palácio de Matéus allow guests to immerse themselves in the cultural richness of this unique region.

The second part of the tour continues along picturesque mountain roads through the Center of Portugal into the culturally rich region of Caramulo. The route follows many kilometers of the legendary National Road N2, famous for connecting the northernmost and southernmost points of the country.

A special highlight is a visit to the Museu do Caramulo, which houses one of Portugal's most important collections of classic automobiles. At the adjacent Caramulo Experience Center, participants gain exclusive insights into the meticulous restoration of historic vehicles as well as a fascinating glimpse behind the scenes of Portuguese automotive history and the famous hill climb, the Rampa de Caramulo, held each year as part of the Caramulo Motorfestival.

Accommodation is provided at the elegant Valverde Santar Hotel & Spa, a property of exceptional character which invites guests to relax and enjoy in an exclusive atmosphere after an intense day of driving. On the following day, the route leads back through impressive mountain roads of the Serra de Montemuro to the Douro Valley – a memorable drive through the diverse landscapes of the Center of Portugal – before returning to Porto.
